Biblical Model for Conflict Resolution

Conflict is inevitable even in a close-knit community of people rowing in the same direction, but as a covenant school and community, we are committed to following Jesus' guidelines for conflict resolution as outlined in Matthew 18. Furthermore, we believe that we become more unified and God is glorified when we give our best attempt to approach conflict based on these teachings. This workshop is designed to study the words of Matthew 18 and provide practical tools for how to approach someone in conflict, how to listen, and how to respond. It will be led by Kristen Smith-Vaniz, Heritage Counselor and mother, and all parents are welcome to attend.
